IV. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant was personally involved in the alleged wrongful action, along with the dates and locations of all relevant events. You may wish to include further details such as the names of other persons involved in the events giving rise to your claims. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

On May of 2012, I was found guilty of multiple misdemeanors of violation of no contact

1	Order. Due to that, I received a jail sentence of 9 months and few other years were
2	Suspended. On January of 2013, I left USA as a result of my conviction be in violation
3	Of INA 212 (a)(2)[8 U.S.C. 1182(a)(2)] for crimes involving moral turpitude as the
4	Violations were under domestic violence.
5	Few months later after I left the country, Redmond city prosecution office brought 5
6	Different charges for Redmond City Court under causes: CR38557, CR38555, CR37945,
7	CR37944, CR37942 which requested my suspended sentence to be revoked due to me
8	Violating terms of probation by committing a law violation due to a charge brought by
9	King Country Prosecution office under cause: 12-1-05542-1 SEA (which was later
10	Dismissed).
11	Those Redmond city causes were not heard in court until circa 6 months later (after I left
12	USA with about 4-5 months) for reasons that are unknown (and in violation of 5 th
13	Amendment rights for speedy trial on their own).
14	Later on the 24 th of May of 2015, another charge was brought against me in King county
15	With cause: 15-1-02654-9 SEA for the crime of Felony – Cyberstalking.
16	I was not made aware of any of those charges until very recently, after that I reached
17	For the public defense office for representation and the King County Prosecution office
18	Which took over all cases, is refusing to let me attend my hearings via zoom calls and
19	Insist of me attending physically which is IMPOSSIBLE due to INA 212 (a)(2)[8 U.S.C.
20	1182(a)(2)] on which I am not eligible for a waiver under INA 212(h). Which means
21	I can't come physically into the US being not a citizen and not eligible for US entry
22	Visa.
23
24	This whole story has violated a plethora of my constitutional rights under 5 th , 6 th , 8 th and

14th amendment as I will summarize below. Just for the sake of clarity, I am not a

Lawyer and I don't have access to official caselaw books. So I used a mixture of

AI and search engines to get the cases below. So on the top of my knowledge,

They are accurate.

First violation:

The prosecution engaged in evidence fabrication which is Per Miller v. Pate (1967) is an egregious violation for my rights, due process of the law and even raise to the level of prosecutorial misconduct!

On the causes CR38557, CR38555, CR37945, CR37944, CR37942, the original filing on November 29, 2012, referred to the base to request for the revocation of suspended Sentence due to new violation of law on cause number: 12-1-05542-1 SEA which was Later dismissed.

On the current ongoing case, the prosecution used cause number: 15-1-02654-9 SEA as

The ground for the new law violation and by doing so, they committed two pieces of

Evidence fabrication:

- 1- They didn't share with my attorney the fact that the original hearing back in 2013 and the current hearing are done based on two different cases
- 2- They incorrectly stated that the new violation happened in 2013 although cause number: 15-1-02654-9 SEA was filed on 24 May of 2015. And they did that because the new date makes the new alleged violation outside of the probation window which expired circa March 2014

Second violation:

1	For the felony of cyberstalking, per discovery documents, the first
2	Occurrence of the alleged crime occurred in May of 2013, the second occurrence
3	Happened in February of 2014 and the last occurrence happened in March of 2014
4	The discovery documents didn't show any investigations of anything that would
5	Give any grounds why the charges were delayed for over 2 years from the first
6	Occurrence and over a year from the last one?
7	Per United States v. Marion (1971) and United States v. Lovasco (1977) and Doggett v.
8	United States (1992) and Dickerson v. Guste (1988), it was stated that delays between
9	The commission of a crime and the indictment (specially when the defendant was
10	Unaware of the charges) that it would be a violation of due process rights and sixth
11	Amendment rights to a speedy trial.
12
13	Third Violation:
13 14	Third Violation: The state preventing me from attending my hearings via zoom calls while knowingly

14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	The state preventing me from attending my hearings via zoom calls while knowingly Knowing of my ability to be physically present in the USA is a severe violation of my Due process of the law and the right of a fair trial. Per United States v. Darden (1985), the court found that forcing the defendant to appear In court while being too ill, was a violation of his rights of a fair trial. Per Illinois v. Allen (1970), the decision allowed for a trial to continue without even the Defendant being present at all due to their behavior as long as it does not prejudice their Rights to a fair trial.

1	Per Faretta v. California (1975), the case touched the broader theme of the right of the
2	Defendant to participate in their trial which the King County prosecutor wants to take
3	Away from me.
4	Per United States v. Brown (2004), the court considered that forcing the defendant to
5	Appear in court while severely ill would be a violation of rights because it won't allow
6	Him to effectively participate in his defense.
7	All these cases and more show that it's very clear that preventing me from being part
8	Of my trial would be a severe violation of my rights to a fair trial and for the due process
9	Of the law!
10
11	Forth Violation: 8th Amendment:
12	Per Barker v. Wingo (1972), the court stated that in cases were a trial can't proceed, and
13	Charges hang over a defendant's head for an extended period, there might be argument
14	That the conditions and consequences of this delay could be seen as cruel and unusual
15	Punishment.
16	In my case, those charges and preventing me from getting a lot of jobs due to background
17	Checks failure which would continue to happen until the end of my life (given the fact
18	That I am unable to ever go back to USA to finalize those charges).
19	Per Stack v. Boyle (1951), although the case dealt primarily with excessive bail, the court
20	States that any pretrial conditions, including, prolonged charges without a chance for trial
21	Could violate the 8 th amendment.
22
23	Per Jackson v. Indiana (1972), although the case dealt primarily with incompetent
24	Defendants who can't stand trial without the likelihood of them regaining competence,

1		It's relevant when considering defendants who are charged but cannot stand trial.
2	A.	Where did the events giving rise to your claim(s) occur?
